

Agreements with the parents

Good news! Uilenspel found a volunteer that will visit you at your house every week. The volunteer helps with homework, teaches your child language and arithmetic, reads a book or plays a game with your child.

Name of the volunteer:

Phone number of the volunteer:

- Agree well with the volunteer on which fixed day and at what time he/she comes, every week.
- The mother or father is always home when the volunteer comes. You can participate if you want.
- Provide a quiet place to work. The television is off and there is no smoking.
- Check the school agenda together. The volunteer can help you if you have questions about it.
- It is important that you also practice with your child, especially on the days the volunteer does not come.
- The volunteer helps the child that was notified by the school. The volunteer cannot assist all children in your family. If there is time left, a game can be played with all children.
- Can't your really be at home ? Send a message or call the volunteer.

Do you have questions ? At school you can always contact :

To be completed by a parent.

Please submit to the school.

I have read the information and the agreements for parents and I know that :

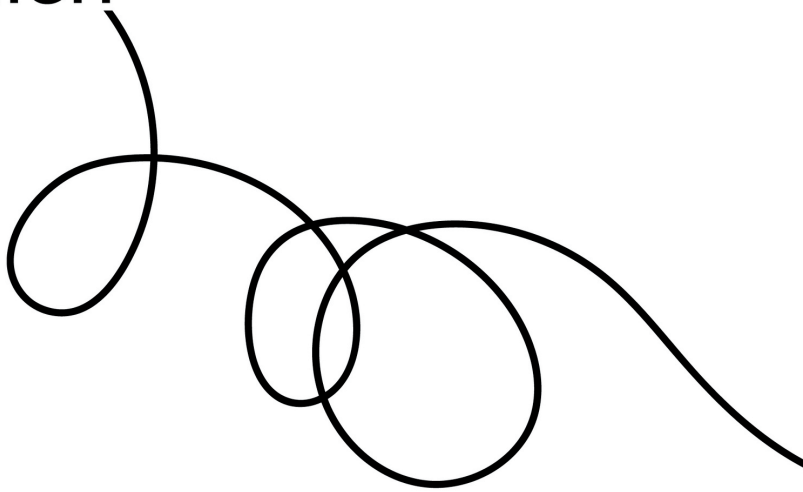

- Uilenspel insures my child and the volunteer during Uilenspel's assistance and activities. It's an insurance for physical accidents and civil liability.
- Everybody is welcome at Uilenspel. We respect each other.
